Mashadi Bar Mitzvah Trip 2026

1. Standard Cancellation Policy (For Families)

The following cancellation fee structure applies to all families purchasing tour packages:

- From June 15, 2026, onward: 100% cancellation fee applies (no refunds).

2. War, Security Escalation & Organizers Cancellation Policy

We want you to feel entirely confident and protected when booking this journey. In light of regional sensitivities, we provide explicit financial safeguards while ensuring fair protection for all parties involved:

- If the Trip Is Canceled by the Organizers: Should we be required to cancel the trip due to official instructions from the Israeli government, or in the event of an Iranian attack against Israel, an official declaration of war, or a significant regional security escalation that objectively prevents the group from safely traveling or proceeding with the itinerary as planned:
 - The Refund: Participants will receive a full refund of the program funds.
 - Excluded Deductions: The refunded amount will be net of standard credit card handling/bank wire transaction fees (3%) and any non-refundable deposits already legally held by local third-party suppliers (such as specific hotels or strict attraction bookings) that are completely unrecoverable by the organizer.
 - If You Choose to Cancel Due to Personal Concern: If a participant or family chooses to cancel out of personal concern or fear—while the trip is still proceeding as planned and travel remains open according to Israeli government guidelines—the standard cancellation policy (Section 1) will apply, including all applicable fees and non-refundable costs.
 - Flight Cancellations: If your specific flight is canceled, but other commercial flights continue to enter Israel and the trip proceeds, this is considered a personal matter. The standard cancellation policy will apply.

3. Mandatory Travel Insurance Advisory

Because independent global and local suppliers (such as commercial airlines and international hotel chains) enforce their own rigid, independent cancellation terms during volatile periods, we strongly urge and recommend that every participating family purchase comprehensive travel insurance with a "Cancel For Any Reason" (CFAR) rider. Securing a CFAR policy is the only way to guarantee your family is 100% protected against any non-recoverable supplier fees, flight cancellations, or sudden personal changes.

4. General Operating Conditions

- Itinerary Flexibility: The organizer reserves the right to make substitute arrangements of equal or greater value on the ground if local safety hazards, IDF military closures, or logistical changes disrupt scheduled routing.
